

Contact Name: Teresa Veltkamp
Contact phone:
Email: tveltkamp@mt.gov
Question Comments:

re:Children & Nature summit

Related info from Hopa Mtn
fwd follows:

P.O. Box 10892, Bozeman, MT 59719
(406) 586-2455

www.hopamountain.org

Native Science Field Centers:

Integrating Traditional Knowledge with Science Youth from the Blackfeet, Pine Ridge, and Wind River Reservations came together to learn more about traditional ways of knowing and environmental science this summer at Luccock Park Camp. A 10-minute documentary video of their experience was recently completed by Chris "Mo" Hollis from the Seventh Generation Fund.

You can see it at:

http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=f6-ZV_lx2RQ

Thank you for your support of the Native Science Field Centers and making this education program possible. The Native Science Field Centers are also funded by the National Science Foundation and the Bush Foundation.

Native Science and Issues of Diversity: Recommended Books and Websites for more information Greg Cajete. Native Science: Natural Laws of Interdependence (1999) Clear Light Books Vine Deloria and Daniel Wildcat. Power and Place: Indian Education in America (2001) Fulcrum Publishing Keith James. Science and Native American Communities: Legacies of Pain, Visions of Promise (2001) University of Nebraska Press Angayuqaq Oscar Kawagley. A Yupiaq Worldview: A Pathway to Ecology and Spirit (2006) Waveland Press

Alaska Native Knowledge Network <http://www.ankn.uaf.edu/about.html>

Native Science Field Centers.

<http://www.nativesciencefieldcenters.org/index.html>

SACNAS - Society for the Advancement of Chicanos and Native Americans in Science <http://www.sacnas.org/>